

Jacques NADRA Senior Business Advisor (AXCEL Partners France)

Jacques spent most of his time within Compagnie de Saint-Gobain in the area of advanced materials in various managerial functions. General Manager, then Division Vice President, he led major restructuring and continuous improvement programs over a wide international scope. Chemical engineer by trade with a master degree in organic chemistry, Jacques lived 13 years as an expat in the US and enjoys an extensive 5 continents international culture.

Before joining AXCEL Partners, Jacques spent 7 years within Imerys, a world leader in non-metallic Industrial minerals, managing a 1B$ division. Jacques' area of expertise is value creation, M&A, divestitures and operational excellence.

