AXCELPartnersFrance

Before entering the professional services industry, Jean-Pierre Godbillon had over three decades of experience in finance and transformation. He led this first career equally within operational and process expertise areas, across the Americas, Asia and Europe.

Having supported international family-owned and listed companies as well as, private equity portfolios with turnover ranging from 250 M€ to 15 B€, Jean-Pierre is familiar with value chains optimization in a number of sectors: chemicals (Solvay), health & life sciences (Laboratoires Ethypharm, Hill-Rom...), micro-electronics (Idemia), defence (Honeywell), higher education (Omnes Education), ...

His scope of intervention includes both cash generation / competitiveness plans and back-office or finance digitization programs, from design to execution. For this purpose, he is an expert in leveraging mature (ERP, BI) or cutting edge (analytics, RPA, fintech...) technologies. From a leadership standpoint, he drives the creation of cross-functional teams acting as proactive players in tactical and strategic challenges.

He holds two Master's degrees in Management (NEOMA) and in Innovation & Transformation (CentraleSupélec). That last one was for him the opportunity to write a master thesis: "Performance management and digitization: innovation roadmap".
