

Ursula SAINT LEGER

PARTNER

AXCELPartnersFrance

From Belgium and Austrian origins and educated in France, Ursula possesses 30 years of experience in the Human Resources and Sustainability fields. As CHRO Aptar Group, an American packaging company, she was instrumental in integrating several acquisitions. In her last position as CHRO and head of ESG of Aliaxis, a family-owned company, her HR & Sustainability teams support the mutation and evolution of this global construction company.

Her expertise in human resources and management brought her to work overseas (Korea, Vietnam and Emirates) as well as in Europe.

Since 2015, Ursula is an Independent Director of the Board of Air France, and she is chairing the Committee for Flight Safety .

Bringing her direct experience of management challenges in multi-cultural environments and in the Social ESG field makes her a nice asset for servicing at best our AXCEL Partners Client.
