MANAGING PARTNER

AXCELPartnersFrance

Frédéric spent most of his time in the Chemical, Packaging and Materials industries (glass, plastics, ceramics, composites, etc.).

With a Master's degree from ESCP in hand, he began his career in business development, with multiple expatriations in the Far East, the USA and Spain and the management of acquisitions and JVs in Europe and Asia.

He held several general management positions within the Saint-Gobain group, then at Arkema, in contexts alternating business challenges and in-depth restructuring.

Frédéric co-founded AXCEL Partners after four years as a partner with a Transition Management firm in Paris.

His favorite topics: International development, Reorganization and Restructuring, Industrial footprint, and Human Resources as a vector of transformation.
