

Eric COTELLE

PARTNER

AXCELPartnersFrance

Eric has spend more than thirty years in Aerospace and Defense industries in providing Critical System to Aircraft Manufacturers for all recent Aircraft programs and in Energy Transition dealing with key Energy Players for System solution to electrify and decarbonise the electro intensive industries.

A graduate from Aerospace Engineering school - ESTACA, Eric started his career as Business Development Manager for Alkan, then TRW Aeronautical system then ECE-Zodiac Aerospace. During that period, Eric as General Manager, managed the organic and inorganic growth, positioning ECE as a Word leader. After the taking over of Zodiac Aerospace by Safran, Eric join GE Power Conversion France/EMEA as a CEO to manage the P&L, transform the activities and drive the strategy to support Electrification and decarbonisation by providing Engineering to Order System solution for industries (Oil & Gaz, Transportation, Hydrogen, Metal).

Eric is auditor of the 44th session « Armement & Defense » of the Institut des Hautes Etudes de la Défense Nationale (IHEDN).

Eric areas of expertise are : P&L management for multi sites activities, Business Development, Project Management, Operations and Transformation of activities in international environment,