

Gilles MAES

PARTNER

AXCELPartnersFrance

With over 30 years of experience as a senior executive in various industries, Gilles' career is resulting in a blend of leadership and business value creation expertise backed by a confidence-inspiring business understanding.

He is a result-oriented professional operating in complex, demanding, and rapidly developing markets. Gilles has a strong competency in value propositions to develop long-term relationships.

In his role, he assists major clients in the energy sector to reach their industrial goals by delivering high-quality engineering services. He has led projects in Asia, USA and all across Europe for local customers.

Gilles holds a master degree in Economics and Social Sciences from FUNDP University in Belgium.